SOUTH AFRICAN UNITED BUSINESS CONFEDERATION (SAUBC) SENDS CONDOLENCES TO HIS EXCELLENCY DR. KENNETH KAUNDA FAMILY

The South African United Business Confederation (SAUBC) is saddened by the passing of Dr. Kenneth Kaunda, first President of the Republic of Zambia and liberation hero. Dr. Kaunda died at the aged 97, at a military hospital in Lusaka where he was being treated for pneumonia.

President of SAUBC, Mr. George Sebelela said, “the SAUBC conveys its warm condolences to the Kaunda family who have all been moved by his life and death.”

Kaunda emerged as a major figure in the fight for majority rule across southern Africa. His government provided support to Black liberation movements in neighbouring Zimbabwe, Namibia, Angola and Mozambique, and he was an outspoken critic of South Africa’s White-minority government. Dr. Kaunda ruled the southern African nation from 1964, when it won independence from Britain, until 1991, and is respected across the continent as one of the generations who fought to free their nations from colonial rule.

“We remain eternally grateful for his services to Zambia and the rest of the continent. Rest In Power Dr. Kaunda”, Mr. George Sebelela concluded.

END.
